

DERBY HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL DAY GROUP

THEME FOR 2022: 'ONE DAY'

PROGRAMME OF EVENTS – as at 13 January 2022

Members of the public are welcome at many of the events in this programme, though advance booking is advised for some to avoid disappointment. All events are free of charge.

Monday 24 January

All Saints Church, Etwall Road, Mickleover, DE3 0DL 7.30pm 'Speaking Across the Divide' featuring guest speakers Derek Niemann – grandson of a SS Officer and Noemie Lopian – granddaughter of two concentration camp survivors. Their dialogue will be followed by a Q&A. This is a rare and unmissable chance to hear from those whose families were caught up in the horror of the Holocaust, but in very different ways. No need to book – the event will be Covid compliant. Please wear a face mask unless exempt.

Derek and Noemie will have delivered their presentation earlier in the day to students at Littleover and Murray Park Community Schools.

Monday 24 January

Online - an event organised by Stand up to Racism – the Derby Branch is a member of the Derby HMD Planning Group - 6.30pm – 8.00pm

A response to the HMD Trust announcement of the theme for 2022 'One Day' - when we will all come together in our communities, to learn about the Holocaust and resolve to work for a better future.

'One Day' also means remembering defining moments in history - such as 18 April 1943, when the Jewish inhabitants of the Warsaw Ghetto fought back against the Nazi Regime.

This year's HMD comes against the backdrop of the international rise of racism and antisemitism and the growth of the Far Right.

We are also seeing moves by governments, including the British government, to rip up the rights of refugees established in the wake of the Nazi Holocaust.

It is now more important than ever to reflect, and bear witness the atrocities that resulted in the murder of over six million Jewish people and millions of others, and to educate a new generation about the genocidal horror that fascism represents.

Thursday 27 January: Holocaust Memorial Day and the 77th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz-Birkenau

Derby Cathedral, Irongate, DE1 3GP 2.30 pm: A Service of Reflection and Act of Commemoration

The Cathedral commemoration will include music from part of an exciting project called 'Broken Instruments' featuring the work of Phil Baggaley and Bill Varnam, using restored violins from the Holocaust. After the service those gathered will move to the trees dedicated to Anne Frank and Olga Nahlak, located on Cathedral Green. In a brief ceremony, dignitaries, including the Mayor of Derby and visiting diplomats from Bosnia-Herzegovina, Ukraine and Armenia, will place small stones at the foot of each tree. All who wish to do so may take part and stones will be provided at the trees.

Note 1: In Judaism, stone setting is a custom, to let the deceased soul know that their grave has been visited and that they are still in the minds of those who remain.

Note 2: Olga Nahlak was a Ukrainian gentile who saved a Jewish family by hiding them in a bunker under her floorboards, even faking a pregnancy so that when one Jewish mother gave birth, no-one was surprised to see Olga with a baby and its crying aroused no suspicion. After Olga's husband disappeared, presumed murdered, she came to England where she lived and died in Derby and was designated Righteous Among the Nations. Full details of her life will be available on the day at the Cathedral (and are available online – web search Olga Nahlak). Anne Frank's story is well known.

Further information: Philip O'Brien 01773 746211

Some transport will be provided from the stone setting to the Bosnia-Herzegovina Centre, which is around a 15-minute walk from Cathedral Green.

Bosnia-Herzegovina Centre, Curzon Street DE1 1LN, 4.00pm: Reception in commemoration of the Bosnian war and Srebrenica massacre, with presentations by refugees and short films. The Bosnian community invites everyone to enjoy complementary traditional Bosnian refreshments in the Centre after the commemoration.
